

I am so shocked at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a scary example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in public interest to try to sway the upcoming election by using your corporate might. I ask that if you pursue this lack of judgment and ethics that you balance this show by airing a pro-Kerry film.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve honesty in broadcasting. Thank you. We will be watching this closely, and many of the US citizens will not accept big media controlling elections and people's minds.
